AUTOMOBILE RARITÄTEN

The Mercedes McLaren SLR is a modern Supersportscar that was developed by Mercedes-Benz and McLaren - they should remind of the legendary 300 SL Uhlenhaut Coupe of the 50`s (still the most expensive classic car in the world) and so they wear the butterfly doors and the characteristic air vents on the sides.

Here is the rare opportunity to buy one of the few Edition 722 models - only 150 were made. Sir Stirling Moss - one of the most famous race drivers - had the starting number 722 (Starting time 7.22 in the morning) at the famous Mille Miglia in 1955 in which he finished 1.600 km on open roads in Italy in only 10 hours and 7 minutes...

German delivery, 26.150 km - shurely a Top Investment and with 650 PS a lot of fun.
