Description:

Only 898 of the DB 5 Coupé, made legendary by the James Bond films, were hand-built between 1963 and 1965.

This DB 5 was delivered to James Scott in Scotland in March 1965. The Aston Martin remained well documented in Scotland until the 1990s, when it was sold to London to its last English owner. In 2010 the DB5 was sold to Germany, where it was repainted in the classic Aston colour "Silver Birch" as part of various works. Since then, the car has been partly restored and regularly serviced by renowned specialists. The car has a German registration, a current valuation, the Works Build Sheet and extensive invoice documentation. Its beautiful colour combination matches that of Agent 007's official car in the legendary James Bond films!

Equipment:

RHD, ZF 5-speed gearbox, colour glazing, chrome spoke wheels, stainless steel exhaust system

Engine:

Aluminium DOHC in-line six-cylinder, 3,995 cm<sup>3</sup>, three SU carburettors.
