Description:

The Mercedes SLS AMG GT is already on its way to becoming a legend. The sports car built between 2010 and 2014 was the first model developed entirely by AMG and is based on its historical role model, the Mercedes 300 SL. Under the hood is the meanwhile legendary naturally aspirated V8 with 6,208 ccm capacity, which in the Final Edition now delivers 591 hp and 650 Nm.

In addition to the increase in performance, the bonnet and decorative elements of the "Final Edition" are made of visible carbon.
