AUTOMOBILE RARITÄTEN

Description

In early 1992, Porsche presented a prototype at the Geneva Motor Show, the Porsche 964

Turbo S Lightweight, initially named RS internally.

It was basically the Porsche 964 3.3 ltr. Turbo. By using lightweight components including interior, the weight was considerably reduced and the driving performance significantly improved.

The purchase price at the time was around DM 295,000.
