Description:

In September 1963, Porsche presented the Porsche 901, the successor to the Porsche 356, to the public at the IAA in Frankfurt. One year later, from the 1965 model year, series production of the model, renamed 911 shortly afterwards, began.

The vehicle was delivered to the USA in 1966 and returned to Germany in the 1990s.

On its first-class preserved original basis, the car was completely and faithfully restored from the bodyshell according to the available photo documentation.

In the process of restoration, the vehicle was repainted in its original colour.

A valuation report with originality check by Klaus Kukuk as well as a birth certificate from Porsche Classic are available.

A rare opportunity to acquire one of the few still existing, authentically restored, early 911 Coupés!
