Description:

According to available documents, the Jaguar presented here was delivered to the USA in 1960. The car returned to Europe in the early 1990s. The current owner, a renowned collector from northern Germany, acquired the vehicle through Jaguar Classic. The car was completely built up new by the British company Vicarage on the basis of a Jaguar MK II 3.8 litre engine. In the course of the overhaul the vehicle underwent extensive improvements and modifications.

A Classic Data certificate and a Heritage certificate from Jaguar are available.

Engine:

6-cylinder, 3,8 ltr. engine 217 hp
