The Aston Martin DB 5 is already an Icon since decades . In almost every James Bond Film the DB 5 was the car that was for Agent 007 and so the DB 5 Coupe became one of the world`s most wellknown car. A few (123 LHD) DB 5 were made as Convertible , only 1063 Coupes were made in total (LHD and RHD) and only 193 as LHD.

This DB 5 was delivered new to Austria and sold by the Aston Martin dealer there to a winery owner in Vienna. After a few years the car was sold to a german Aston Martin collector who kept it for decades in a barn. The current owner bought it there and decided to have it completely restored , regardless of costs by AM Expert Noble House. The DB 5 did only 700 km since.
